FINAL ACTION

Applicant's amendment of 4-6-10 has been fully considered. The cancellation of claims 1, 9 and 12-34 has overcome the previous 102 rejections based on Heider et. al. (US'788), Aldag et. al. (US'448), Yale et. al. (US'778), Wang et. al. (Bioorg. & Med. Chem. Lett., 2002), Griffin et. al. (J. Med. Chem., 1998), Cruickshank et. al. (J. Med. Chem., 1974). However, the amended claims have necessitated new ground of rejection.

Claims 2-8, 10 and 11 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 2-8, 10 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yale et. al. In column 2, Example 5 describes the compound of "2,3-dihydro-2-phenyl-3-(2,6-xyllyl)-4(1H)-quinazolinone" which has the following structure:

The disclosed compound has phenyl groups at the 2- and 3- positions, and can inhibit cell growth which suggests treating cancer. The disclosed compound differs from the claimed compound by not having a substituted phenyl group at the 2-position, but such a substituted phenyl group at that position can be found in Example 2. The phenyl at the 3-position is a 2,6-xyllyl, which is a position isomer of the one in formula II (i.e., (3-R^{4b}-4-R^{4a})-phenyl). Thus, the instant subgenus formula II is clearly suggested by Yale in the generic formula I where possible permutations can have substituted phenyl groups at 2- and 3- positions, see the following excerpt:

This invention relates to novel substituted 2,3-dihydro-4(1H)-quinazolinones of the formula wherein R is selected from the group consisting of phenyl, o-chlorophenyl, p-chlorophenyl, trans-2-phenethenyl and 2-thenyl and R' is selected from the group consisting of hydrogen and 2,6-xylyl, provided that R' is 2,6-xylyl only when R is phenyl.

Compounds that are position isomers are expected to have similar properties. See In re Crounse 150 USPQ 554; Ex parte Engelhardt 208 USPQ 343; In re Mehta 146 USPQ 284; In re Norris 84 USPQ 458, and MPEP 2144.09 (February, 2003 Edition) regarding position isomerism. Thus, it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to expect instant compounds to possess the utility taught by the applied art in view of the close structural similarity outlined above.

Non-elected subject matter: This application contains claim 5 which is still drawn to an invention nonelected with traverse in the reply filed on 10-12-09. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
